

This worksheet was generously shared with In geveb: A Journal of Yiddish Studies by its creator, Vardit Lightstone. We want you to use it in whatever way best aids your teaching. If you wish to alter or add to the worksheet, please make note of this in your new worksheet, and please keep this original attribution. You may send questions or comments to the creator through us: pedagogy@ingeveb.org.

LGBTQ Vocabulary Sheet

The boyfriend	דער חבֿר (ים)
The girlfriend	די חבֿרטע(ס)
The husband	דער מאַן(ען)
The wife	די פֿרוי(ען)
The partner / match	דער זיווג(ים)
The partner (borrowing from English)	דאָס פאַרטנער(ס)
The partner (neologism)	דער לעבנס-באַגלייטער(ס) / די לעבנס-באַגלייטערין(ס)
Homosexual (adj.)	האַמאָסעקסואַל
Gay (adj.) internationalism from Eng. Must be placed in quotation marks so that it doesn't become confused with the verb "to go".	"גיי"
Gay (adj.), only used in North America, can be confusing since it is also still used to mean "happy".	פֿריילעך
Bisexual (adj.)	ביִסעקסואַל
Trans-gender (adj., neologism)	טראַנס-מין
Queer (adj.), internationalism from Eng. ¹	קוויר
The lesbian	די לעסביאַנקע(ס)

¹ An In geveb editor recently heard "kvire-layt" in casual conversation, another possibility for the collective noun.

The gay man

דער האַמאַסעקסואַליסט (ס)